2023

Partners in Planning - Elective - Learning from Place: Indigenous Planning and Placemaking on Medicine Hill

Join us for this unique session of learning into Indigenous planning and placemaking through the examination of Medicine Hill. During this half-day session, we will learn from place and explore the significance of this area in Calgary and the broader territory it situates within alongside several special guests. The focus of the session will centre around three parts, including:

- Traditional Knowledge and the Significance of Medicine Hill.
- The Archaeological Significance of Medicine Hill.
- Design and Indigenous Placemaking.
- Final Thoughts and Questions.
