

Calgary

Jeromy Farkas, Mayor

PROCLAMATION

Community associations support neighbourhoods throughout Calgary by serving the needs of residents and providing a voice for community life. Led by volunteers, these associations offer social, educational and recreational opportunities close to home.

Whereas: Community associations are dedicated to ensuring our communities are great places to live, work and play;

Whereas: There are 159 community associations, representing more than 200 neighbourhoods across Calgary, and more than 20,000 volunteers organizing and hosting social, recreational and educational programs and events;

Whereas: Throughout March, the focus is on promoting the value of community associations and encouraging residents to become members and volunteers.

On behalf of City Council and Calgarians, I hereby proclaim March 2026 as:

COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION AWARENESS MONTH
